ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value)

Dr. Adrian Eugene Fauve was the first physician volunteering from Fort Wayne, Indiana to receive his commission. He was called into training July 1st 1917 and upon arriving in France in late October, 1917, organized the first American Hospital Train in France — ten coaches, 36 beds in each coach.

Dr. Fauve went over with "the first fifty thousand and returned with the last fifty thousand." — longest service of any Fort Wayne physician.
